STEWARDSHIP BY THE BOOK: 'Peter, James, and John wanted to build a "booth" for Jesus and just stay on the mountain where His transfiguration took place. But the Son of god, the Chosen One, knew that He must instead keep moving toward His crucifixion. We, too, must rise from worship and do what we can to hasten the coming of the kingdom.'

Thank you so much for your cards & prayers I am doing real good. I am able to get out a little and hope to see all of you soon. A special thanks to Bill Davis, Bill Huber, Jeff Thien, Ted Wanstrath and anybody else who have helped during my time away from St. John. I couldn't have done my rehab without all of your help. From Beverly & myself thank you so much!

Love, Jim (Siegel)

Connecting Today's Gospel to Our Experience

Luke 9:28b-36 – 'Early on—from the "terrible twos"—subjecting our will to another is challenging. As Christians, our whole lives are spent learning obedience to Christ ('listen to Him'). This obedience is the dying to self that conforms us to Christ and grants us new life and glory.

To share in the glory of Jesus we must walk the journey of Jesus: offer our very lives for the sake of others.'
